Biography

REENA LAZAR

Co-Founder

A creative thinker, compassionate listener and a facilitator of peace on every level, Reena is fuelled by her passion for personal growth + transformation.

As someone committed to lifelong personal development, Reena has an eclectic background and education. She is a graduate of the BEyond Yonder Virtual School of Death Midwifery in Canada, a 12-week course given by 10 different experts on such topics as grief, disposition, rituals, body care, advance planning, being with the dying, and funeral alternatives. Reena is committed to facilitating green and holistic approaches to deathcare in our families, communities and in our culture at large. Prior to WILLOW, she created and led Peace it Together, which brought Palestinian, Israeli and Canadian youth together for dialogue, filmmaking and community engagement. For 11 years she created and led emotionally-charged processes about the world's most intractable conflict.
